LOCAL CANDIDATE ISSUED CIVIL PENALTY AT ENFORCEMENT HEARING

Olympia – Secretary of the Public Disclosure Commission, Francis Martin, found Daniel Goebel, candidate for the State House of Representatives in the 23rd Legislative District, in violation of state law during a brief enforcement hearing held Thursday in Olympia.

Goebel was cited for failure to file a Candidate Registration report and assessed a civil penalty of $150.

Candidates are required under state statute to file a Candidate Registration report with the Public Disclosure Commission within two weeks of becoming a candidate.

Goebel had previously been sent a warning letter asking him to comply with the reporting requirements. A letter reminding each candidate of his or her obligation to file was sent on August 17, 2004 and letter with an opportunity to pay a civil penalty and forego an enforcement hearing was sent on August 27, 2004.

He also will have an opportunity to ask the full, five-member Commission to review the action taken by the presiding officer.
